

Mr. Jikul Purohit
Co-founder, Packfora LLP

Jikul Purohit is a co-founder of Packfora LLP, seasoned packaging professional having 17 years of experience. He led various local and global packaging design and development roles at Unilever. He has worked across all three categories (Foods & Refreshments, Home Care, Personal Care). In his last role, he led packaging sustainability agenda for Unilever Asia, working closely with packaging professionals and partners across South Asia, South East Asia, China and Australia. He is an Electronics engineer with PG Diploma in Packaging from Indian Institute of Packaging.

He is well known within the packaging industry for his collaborative approach, nurturing leadership, creativity and problem solving. He is awarded with prestigious world star award and various Asia star, India star and Pack-machine awards.